

Jack and Kate are good friends. They met thanks to a tragic event: they survived a plane crash. Their plane, called OCEANIC 815, crashed a few years ago on an island in the middle of the ocean. However, this island is a mysterious island, unknown to anyone and there is no trace of it on known maps. In addition, they will discover that it can change geographical position and move back and forward in time.

Without explaining how well, after 15 weeks and 3 days they escaped from it and returned home. They never revealed anything particular about the island, so as to protect it. By now they have become famous people and are tormented by the media, intrigued by this event.

Jack, a computer security lover, finds a way to keep in touch with Kate without being spied on. He sends her a meaningless message and a key; the comparison between them hides the true message. This key is different every time, but always has the same structure: it is formed by a collage of images taken from Neapolitan culture, found inside a cave on the island. Next to these images, on a wall there was an inscription: SMORFIA. Kate remembers those graffiti well, she knows what those images correspond to and she knows what she has to do in order to get a meaningful sentence.

One day when Jack was feeling particularly depressed, he decided to send a message to Kate and the key with which she could decipher the message.

The message is as follows:

0x727f00340e075a6b3a69146f2d3e3a67403c343e101d052b1a58623d3c1a0e53087c00245b6e00771d1f1005316e08693e24000714

P.S.: Remember the time we spent on the island. It will help you!

First of all, Kate deciphers the key. She gets a sentence and smiles because it's a sentence that Jack said once on the island. Kate now knows that she must compare the key she obtained and the message she received in order to discover Jack's true message.

But that's not all: she has to follow the passages of an ancient manuscript always found on the island; this manuscript is written in Latin and was written by a young emperor who also mysteriously passed from that island a few years ago.

Once the operation is over, Jack's message will leave her speechless!